ess reporter

Business

Herald Times Reporter

SUNDAY, MAY 25, 2014 • D1

Fox Hills celebrating golden anniversary

MISHICOT — Fox Hills Resort is celebrating 50 years. Fox Hills Resort is a 500-acre, year-round resort and conference center located in an ideal setting for seasonal recreation, relaxation and family fun.

Centrally located just 25 miles southeast of Green Bay and 90 minutes north of Milwaukee, Fox Hills Resort is perfect for a much needed getaway.

Fox Hills employs 120 people year round and upwards of 250 people during peak season. The Resort is owned by the Jacobson Group.

Fox Hills Resort features comfortable and recently refreshed guest rooms. Rooms feature two double beds, two queen beds or one king bed.

Fox Hills Resort is one of Northeast Wisconsin's finest golf facilities with 45 holes of challenging golf, featuring the 18 hole links course of The National and the skillfully landscaped parkland-style of Fox Creek 27 hole course that encompasses the resort.

In 2007, Fox Hills was named Resort Course of the Year by the Golf Course Owners of Wisconsin and was also named the best course in 2012 by the readers of HTR Media.

Whether you are planning a small, intimate wedding, a grand wedding event, an elopement, or renewing your vows, Fox Hills Resort offers elegant ceremony and reception sites, exceptional dinner menus, and, most importantly, the personal attention of our dedicated staff to guide you through your planning.

the Chamber
Manitowoc County
Notebook

With 10 designated meeting rooms for a combined total of 15,000 square feet of flexible indoor meeting space, we will put together an ideal sized meeting room for your group of 10 to 850 attendees.

For added convenience, we carry all essential audiovisual equipment on site and offer the expertise to ensure your presentations are exceptional. For the group that is looking to add outside recreation and team building activities, our 500-acre property features many grassy areas and plenty of opportunities for outdoor fun!

Don't miss the big game while you relax at Fox Hills Resort. Stop by Benchwarmers Sports Bar to watch your favorite team, or play a game of pool, darts or foosball

See NOTEBOOK, Page D2

Fox Hills Resort is a 500-acre, year-round resort and conference center located in an ideal setting for seasonal recreation, relaxation and family fun.

Notebook

Continued from Page D1

with your friends.

Outdoor seating and dining available on our beautiful deck, we always have great food and drink specials for you to enjoy. Benchwarmers has different and unique entertainment as often as possible.

Floor-to-ceiling windows offer an amazing view of Fox Creek golf course from The Willowview Restaurant. Friday nights feature a fish fry, Saturday night prime rib and Sunday night all-you-can-eat chicken. The Willowview's casual atmosphere creates an enjoyable dining experience. For more information, visit www.foxhillsresort-.com

The Chamber of Manitowoc County, with its submission of The Chamber Notebook, offers space for Chamber members to present information about their business. The publishing of this information is in no way intended as showing preference for that business by The Chamber.